

I support the "Do Not Call" restriction. In my opinion it is still not restrictive enough. Too many calls are getting through that should not be. Please just enforce the law we have on the books already. Do not do anything to weaken them regardless of the pressure.